Commencement At High School This Week---Twelve Graduates---Many Affairs Given in Their Honor

Distinguished Jurist at Commencement Exercises of High School Last Night.

At the commencement exercises of the High School last night Judge Emmet Seawell gave the address to the graduates. Judge Seawell's enviable record on the bench and in philanthropic work has won him the admiration of every man, woman and child in this valley where he is so well known and where no more popular choice could have been made or one that was more suitable to the occasion. His fine address was listened to with marked attention.

Rev. Mr. Rimer of Trinity Church a man of distinction in letters was chosen to give the invocation.

Sidney Cameron, one of the bright graduates showed deep thought and logic in his theme, Autocracy vs. Democracy.

Miss Amy Heggie, valedictorian, took for her subject, "Out Door Life in California" and handled it most interestingly and with the consciousness of a true nature lover.

Hon. R. P. Hill and Principal M. H. Rowell presided.

The friends present were many and and with the nearer and dearer ones of the graduates there, the evening was a happy one and a milestone in the lives of the class of '17. The graduates are:

OUT OF DOORS CONCERT UNUSUAL TREAT

London Ranch Scene of Beauty Last Sunday.

Nature in her prettiest mood and clothed in the rich leaf of early summer charmed all the comers to the Jack London ranch last Sunday. Into the matchless air up toward the bluest of skies the voices of Mrs. Rees' splendid singers went with the songs of all lands beloved as was the land of "The Valley of the Moon" to the lamented young genius in whose honor this day was set apart It was the day of the memorial library benefit and all who journeyed to the ranch were much impressed with the environment and with the program presented, for it was above the average concert in all details. In a leafy frame on the slope of the hill the cycle of songs was explained and sung.

Songs of the heather, of the cotton fields, the shamrock, the dove and of many lands. As a pretty finale Mrs. Rees herself as Liberty and with the Army in khaki and the Navy in blue accompanying her song the "Star Spangled Banner."

Many notables were present including James Hare noted war correspondent.

The proceeds have not been reported but a goodly sum for the library is expected.

MORE PUBLICITY FOR CELEBRATION

Ben Blow of "Good Road" fame came up Thursday night and met the Publicity and Program Committees. He suggested that Queen Matilda visit San Francisco and call upon the Mayor and along Van Ness Avenue the home of the motor firms. He said he was sure the celebration was coming in for more than its share of fine notices and that Sonoma would have a record breaking crowd.

The Sacramento Bee of the 7th had a splendid half page article on the Black Point Cut-off which was finely illustrated and carries the message of our three day fete to thousands of readers in the Sacramento Valley The S. P. Company is getting out posters advertising reduced fare to Sonoma Valley during the celebration.

All persons and resorts having accomodations are urged to send in number of persons that can be cared for with other information in writing by Monday night. State rates. Address same to Frank Sprague of the Reception and Hospitality Committee.

All jitney bus or auto owners who will meet trains, will also list their names and number of cars. The crowds must be accomodated in every way so all are urged to co-operate

CALL FOR LAST CELEBRATION COMMITTEE MEETING

The last and final meeting of the Celebration Executive Committee, will be held next Monday evening at the City Hall. Each committee is requested to meet and arrange the final details of its work some time this week and bring to the executive meeting complete account of all its expenditures and bills for same so far as possible that they may be accepted by committee and checks drawn for same. A full executive meeting is desired Monday evening.

PEARCE SPOKE ON LIBERTY LOAN

Meeting at Grammar School Sunday Makes Distinct Impression.

Cyrus Pearce came to Sonoma last Sunday and enthused a representative audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm as he told why the people of the countyshould buy the Liberty Bonds and Sonoma Valley do its share of subscribing $75,000 toward the loan.

Mr. Pearce is a forceful speaker and with business-like dispatch plunged into his subject immediately after his introduction by Frank Sprague representing the State Council of Defense.

Mr. Pearce said that the money for the sale of the bonds was to be used to arm and equip the nation for the war in which we are engaged, a war which was brought upon us after we had submitted to every indignity and from which we held aloof until the finger of scorn was being pointed at us. He recited how the dilatory policy of the United States led to a low state of commercialism and how we had appeared to wallow in wealth with nothing but the spirit of gain actuating us.

Now that we have arisen to the exigency and are determined to end the autocratic regime of Germany and to sacrifice the flower of the nation if necessary to establish the freedom to be guaranteed by democracy we must do our share toward the burden whether voluntarily through the purchase of bonds or through a later enforced taxation. It is not a problem to be settled by the banks or politicians but by the people. The great financial powers he said were doing their share and "little old New York" has demonstrated wonderful patriotism. He said he believed the spirit of the West would be identical and that agricultural sections above all would see the good business guarantee behind every bond. The speaker was authorized by the local bankers to state that they would make it possible for any one to buy a bond by lending them the price on a propoition of $10 down and balance at 3½ per cent.

Pearce had a punch in his spirited talk and put over his facts with telling effect. Cheers and applause greeted his truisms and already the Liberty Bonds have shown increased popularity through his patriotic appeal to our citizens.

ON THE SICK LIST

Dr. Gobar has been very busy this week and has attended many cases.

GREAT DAY WAS TUESDAY

Roll of Honor Signed By Young Men of This Community...No Slackers.

Tuesday was a great day all over the United States and was characterized here by quiet earnestness. As the flower of our young manhood went to their precincts and registered in answer to the military requirements there was distinct pride written on their faces as they came from the registrar's questionings with the "no slacker" ribbons pinned to their coats.

The young men who signed the roll of honor in the precincts of 1 and 2 of the town of Sonoma are as follows

Karl von Hacht, James C. Gottenberg, Sam H. Haven, Henry Weshington Walty, Maryan Rutki, Meryn Elwood Hensley, William Henry von Hacht, Ernest Lynn Macquiddy, Ralph Otto Hotz, Maurice Hardin Tracie, Joseph Bernad Andrieux, William Peter Oconor, Peter August Boccoli, John Francis Picetti,Stytzel Xiver Groom, Brandino Granechini, Michael Bill Mannuck, Alfred Ely Wariner, John Juius Mohr, Peo Birtelotti, Gean Charel, John Martin Morrison, Enrico Bartoli, Edward Peterson, Enrico Castagnasso, John Jacob Schutz, Gearnni Fedree, Paul Dignio, Valentino Tommassi, Oliver Francis Burton, Emile Basaglia, William Martin Peterson, Pasquale Fenari, Elisco Pasquini, Giovannini Tommaco, James Joseph Maffei, Silvio Viavinni, Pietro Scardigli, Giavoni Bianchini, Joseph Vella, Vettrio Ottonella.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT CALIENTE

The fire demon had an inning at Agua Caliente Springs Tuesday when one of the largest cottages stored with bedding and furniture went up in smoke. The cottage adjoined the hotel which was destroyed by fire some time ago. The substantial new fireproof hotel is situated in another part of the property but adjacent cottages which surrounded the original hotel site were endangered. After the fire, Mrs. Feder who has been making her home at the Springs brooded over the loss of some valuable papers and in temporary distraction of mind swallowed a quantity of lysol. Prompt medical attention saved her life.

PET WAS DROWNED

"Possum" the fox terrier pet of Mrs. Jack London has been found. His lifeless body was taken from a pool of water on the ranch and he drowned in a way not yet fathomed. A peculiar coincidence is the fact that the ship "Dirigo" in which "Possum" came around the Horn was sent to the bottom of the sea the very day the dog met his death. It was sunk by a submarine.

MUST GET PERMISSION

Owing to the fact that the public has imposed on the good nature of the London ranch which has hitherto welcomed visitors permission must now be requested by phone before the gate is entered.

Queen Matilda Will Preside Over the Celebration

Miss Baccala Elected by Large Majority and Will be Lovely Ruler.

Queen Matilda will preside over the celebration June 14th, 15th, and 16th and it will be a lovely court for the fair ruler has chosen a bevy of the prettiest girls to be her ladies-in-waiting. Queen Matilda is Miss Baccala, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Baccala of this place and a native daughter not only of the Golden West but of our own Sonoma Valley. She was elected queen Saturday night by a large majority. There were several other candidates but the contest was between Miss Baccala and Miss Hansen, the latter withdrawing shortly before the final count.

Queen Matilda will be a lovely ruler for she is a beautiful girl and has a charm of manner and grace that particularly fits her for the majestic part she is to take during the three days fete.

Among the attendants of Queen Matilda will be Miss Evelyn Goldsmith, Miss Nora Mullen and Miss Hilda Ranker. The other girls will be chosen today.

Black Point Ceremonies

The new Black Point highway route is already proving popular and motorists are clamoring to get across the bridge which has only so far been opened for trial and will not be thrown open to the traveling public until Thursday the 14th.

A committee consisting of Ben Bordsen, Frank Sprague, John Picetti and Will Clements visited the bridge Wednesday and talked with the resident engineer, Mr. Gerwick. They found excellent progress being made all along the road and an asphalt surface is now being put down. All will be in readiness by the 14th and up to that time steam rollers, oilers and their crews will be kept very busy. The county will take care of the roads up this way and the city trustees are getting the streets of the town in good shape.

The committee after leaving the bridge went on down to San Rafael where they had a conference with the leading citizens of Marin. They are on the qui vive for the official visit of Governor Stephens, and their part of the program on Saturday. It was suggested that our queen join hands with Napa and Marin County in a beautiful ceremonial on the bridge and that after the Governor's speech that Old Glory be run up high over the water and that the Star Spangled Banner be sung by Lillian Tovan, the brilliant young soprano who has been specially engaged for the occasion by Sonoma's committee.

Marin, Napa and all our guests will then be welcomed into Sonoma Valley and the auto parade up from the bridge is expected to be a memorable one. Governor Stephens reception and banquet at the Clubhouse and a general good time for all at the races, rodeo, resorts and baths is scheduled.

Mayor Rolph Day

Opening day will see one of the finest parades ever witnessed here. The queen's float will be a beautiful creation and there will be many other attractive features. The U. S. Marines are still being importuned to come and the San Francisco police will send a delegation to march in uniform and accompany Hon. James Rolph Jr., who will head the procession. The wild west show will have features in the parade that will alone be a treat and novelty.

The Loyal Order of Moose will turn out in fine style with fife and drum corps.

The Native Sons and Daughters will do their Order proud. The handsome daughters of the Golden West in white gowns and picture hats and the Native Sons in natty uniforms.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Washington D. C.

May 24, 1917.

Mr. Frank Sprague,
Sonoma Calif.

Friend Sprague:—

I received your note of the 19th and have observed that you are going to celebrate the completion of the Black Point Cut-off. It is an event worthy of celebration and one step forward in progress that will help to give our section the advantages it deserves. I certainly do wish I could be there, but that is impossible. At present there seems to be no probability that Congress will adjourn before the first of July.

You can express to your committee my delight at this happy consummation of the effort your people have made and my regret at not being able to rejoice with you on this happy occasion.

With best regards, I am,

Yours sincerely
CLARENCE F. LEA

"My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty."

The Financier Talks

We got the antitithesis of Socialism in the talk given by Cyrus Pierce, financier, who talked primarily on the people's obligation in the matter of purchasing government bonds, but incidentally Mr. Pierce came to the defense of much maligned big business.

It has been heretofore considered by financiers more dignified and more forceful to offer the argument of silence, reserve and conservatism which were supposed to reach the better per cent of the substantial people in this country but it has come to pass that fire must be fought with fire and with the realization there will be less reform and senseless legislation enacted through public opinion aroused by demagogues who had the field all to themselves. The railroads have been first to realize this and are now using printers ink and silver tongued oratory to tell their side of the story of profit and loss, capital and labor.

Mr. Pierce came to the defenseof Wall Street, a very badly maligned strata of society but which on account of its pay-dirt quality has held aloof from arguments with common clay. As a result the average person has come to believe that Wall street is a barrier behind which every sculduggery is committed and a wall which no ordinary mortal can scale unless it be to pay the scale of prices which the moguls of Wall street indirectly or direct control, where goats are trimmed and bulls and bears tussle woefully.. But now we are being enlightened and are told that after all Wall street has risen magnificiently to the emergency and that the first millions to finance the war has come from that quarter

More over we are growing better acquainted with John D. Rockefeller's other side. This same enlightenment presents Mr. Rockefeller a little decrepit old man with his money frenzylong since atrophied and with a magnificient income and disposition to spend it. Mr. Pierce declared that through gifts and the fortunes of war John D. would be shorn of three-quarters of his income and that he would not raise the price of gasoline because he had long since given up association with lubricants and distillates. It was not only illuminating to hear this but there is some consolation in the fact that John D. with a curtailed income may not contribute so much to the "drys" slush fund and this may tend to end the profitable business of reform such as prohibition. The problem of liquor excess should be solved economically and temperately and the evolution brought about through war conditions will work out this question in a sane and natural way.

Mr. Pierce held up the mirror to the people of this fair land and he showed them up in no complimentary fashion. War profits must give way to war sacrifices said the speaker and only in this way can the American people wipe out the stain of their greedy past.

Perhaps he was a little severe and failed to recall how the misleading slogan, "he kept us out of war" befogged the vision of the nation's majority and that while looking into the clouds for the millenium, things were transpiring on the earth and on the ground floor of the nation that has since caused us to blush for shame.

There has long been a slang phrase that money talks, but now that money really is talking and we all have a chance to help finance a war for righteousness and liberty, we may have a healthier point of view on many questions of import and with a broader conception of most vital matters, be of greater service to humanity than when hearkening to the drivel of demogogues or hanging on the words of axe grinding polititians. The split vote of the last presidential election tells atale that should never be repeated in the United States of America and the truth is being hammered home to us every day. We have Providence to thank that a man of President Wilson's capacity was the man given to us for chief executive and that his latent magnificence has risen nobly to the crisis. Not even the figure of Roosevelt looming on the horizon and insistent on special privelege and recognition swerved our president from his well directed course. The high minded idealist drifted and wave tossed by the force of politics has fortunately become a colossal figure on land and sea and the force of his proclamation will regenerate the world.

S. P. GIVES ASSURANCE

The traffic managers of the country's railroads will meet June 5th in Chicago to consider the elimination of all duplicating and other unnecessary service, according to announcement yesterday from the Southern Pacific offices.

With it came a statement that Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the company's executive committee and member of the "Railroad War Board" had wired local officials that "no serious inconveniences will be occasioned the public by the propose readjustments."

It is understood positively that a large amount of rolling stock and other equipment is to be sent abroad for use in France, as soon as arrangements can be made for its shipment.

Up to date no reductions in passenger service have been made bevond some small ones in local and commuting services on Eastern lines, it is stated.

At the Souther Pacific headquarters here yesterday it was declared that the needful facilities for travel will always be available and that no one need have any worry as to interference with summer plans.

Charles Taylor has a fine replica of the Black Point Bridge fashioned out of hardware and tools. It is displayed at F. Clewe's store.

ARE YOU A FAN?

ST. DOMINICS - 6 SONOMA - 1

The score indicates that it must have been easy picking for the opposing team, but the handful of fans present at the local lot Sunday were treated to as fine an exhibition of the national pastime as has been seen here this season. The game was fast and snappy. Brilliant fielding and dazzling double plays were a common occurence. A triple play was also pulled off by the Cut-off boys. There were base runners on first and second, when the batter poked a roller to Whitlow. He threw the ball to Mitchell who was covering third, which forced the runner on second. Mitchell made a quick heave to first which retired the batter. The runner on first tried to steal third and Evans threw back to Mitchell who put the ball on him for the third out.

St. Dominick's runs were all scored in two innings, the first and the eighth. Three runs were scored in the first on hits of the very scratchy variety, while an error started three more in the eighth.

Sonoma scored their lone run in the sixth. Evans slammed out a triple with one down, thereupon, Trustee Dresel's son Bunk scored him with a sacrifice fly. The home gang were also rather helpless before the opposing slabster. Usually they just made tunnels in the ozone with their bats and if they did hit the ball it would go squarely into somebody's mitts. Only three hits were gathertd off the portsider, two of them by Evans who seemed to be the only one to solve his delivery, slamming out a double and triple. The boys have an alibi though, someone stole their hitting togs but they promise to return them in time for Sunday's game.

Old Joe Slump was always on the job Sunday. All the breaks against us and we were simply outlucked.

Listen loyal fans!

The brand of baseball dished up in this burg is worthy of far greater patronage than it is now receiving. The team is losing money every Sunday just because the people refuse to turn out and it will run on the rocks pretty suddenly if their isn't an increase in attendance. Is that a boost forSonoma? Come out if you have never seen a ball game before in your life. Remember! Columbus took a chance, and remember the boys will play twice as good when there is a large crowd to watch them. And if you don't show up there is something radically wrong with you as every American should stand by the good old American game.

Bring your friends to the game Sunday. Show your patriotism by keeping money in circulation and dig down for your quarter. Baseball works wonders. If you have a perpetual grouch you will go away a rank optimist.

SO SHOW UP.

AL JOYLESS

The Congregational Ladies Aid Society will be entertained in the parlors of the church on Tuesday next, May 12th by Mrs. England, Mrs. Ericksen and Mrs. Bill.

PAUL'S RESORT HAS FINE AUTO BUS

Paul Vannnochi has added a fine new Republic truck body auto bus to his equipment at the Verano resort of which he is proprietor and it will be of great accomodation to his guests. The bus arrived Sunday last and is a beauty. Fifteen or twenty friends came up in the new joy wagon from San Francisco and spent the day at Paul's resort enjoying one of the excellent dinners there.

Mr. Vannucchi is ably assisted by his mother who looks after the cuisine. The table is famous and is supplied with many luxuries raised right on the place.

Increasing trade made the purchase of the new auto bus necessary and the attractive lettering on it will be a good ad for the resort and Sonoma Valley.

VILLA SAVOY HAS GRAND OPENING TONIGHT

The Villa Savoy celebrates its annual Grand Opening tonight and minehost Wachlin promises a goo d time to all who attend. The Villa Savoy has grown in popularity each season and the genial management will entertain many guests who will come tonight from Vallejo and towns of the surrounding country to wish the well known resort continued prosperity.

A fine orchestra will play for the dancing there this evening and as the floor is one of the very best in the valley it will no doubt be popular with dance lovers.

CONVENT GRADUATION EXERCISES

Graduates Showered With Congratulations and Flowers and Fine Program is Given.

Union Hall was the scene last Saturday night of the closing exercises of the Presentation Convent. The graduates this year from the grammar grades were; Celia Thomson, Blanche Bianchini, Angelia Marmori, Frank Canevari, and Romilda Delmartini.

The stage was prettily festooned with evergreens and flowers and the pupils of the school presented a fine program from the tiniest tot of four years to the most talented graduate.

The opening chorus, "Over the Ocean Foam" was very tuneful and the young singers showed fine training in time and modulation.

Miss Celia Thomson and Miss Annie Dowdall played a brilliant duet L'allegro and showed themselves to be young musicians of great promise.

"Green Bonnets," a characteristic song was beautifully costumed and acted out by the girls of the school and it was indeed effective and a pleasing number.

Then came the hit of the evening, the little soldier boys in khaki suits and guns who drilled in most manly fashion and sang with the ardor of older patriots. Little Irving Gobar not much over 4 years old was the tiniest soldier in the maneuvers and did his "bit" like a little man.

Coro di Creciata e Pellegrini of Verdi was sung by a selected chorus of excellent voices and the audience gave hearty applause to this exquisite composition.

"Fantasie" the De Bar piano solo played by Miss Norma Jansen was splendidly executed and revealed the fine training and technical perfection attained at the Convent School.

Marzo's Invitation to Summer operetta was given in minature version and was very well done. The costumes of the yellow corn shade and of green and pink were all pretty and the girls sang and drilled splendidly. Julia Chelini as the Herald showed fine elocutionary talent and Misses Marie Cook, Annie Dowdall Angelina Marmori, May Kiser and May Bianchini with the Chorus of blossoms were all pretty and vivacious, taking their individual parts extremely well.

The Royal Hunt, piano duet by Misses Elvia Ramelli and Miss Norma Jansen was a beautiful brilliant number and although very difficult was played with self confidence and fine interpretation.

"Our Flag" with the concluding tableau, Godess of Liberty" was a fine patriotic finale.

At the conclusion of the program numbers the exercises of graduation were presided over by Rev. T. P. Moran, M. A. R. U. who presented the young graduates with their diplomas and after confering them gave a splendid address brimful of good advice and logic. The reverend gentleman laid much stress on the necessity of spiritual training with the intellectual, and congratulated the good sisters of St. Francis School on the excellent start and preparation given the graduates for life's work. He spoke of the unselfish high minded motives which actuated these good women to teach and to point out the pathway to good citizenship. He admonished parents of the coming generation to aid in every way possible the good work being done and to give their support to the teachings begun so many years ago by the kindly padres of the Mission days in old Sonoma.

At the conclusion of Rev. Moran's excellent talk, the graduates were presented with many beautiful flowers, tributes of their many friends and admirers.

Dancing concluded the evening.

MRS. CLEWE DIES VERY SUDDENLY

Mother of Well Known Family Answers Final Call.

Mrs. Maria Clewe one of Sonoma's most respected citizens and mother of the well known family died on Tuesday after an attack of heart trouble which had caused some apprehension for the week preceding her passing. She had been an invalid for many years but of late seemed much improved and actively participated in the many activities with which she was identified and in which she was equally interested with her duties of home and family. Although an ideal mother and lover of the hearthside, Mrs. Clewe was a most public spirited woman and one of the most energetic and beloved members of the Woman's Club.

As one of the directors of this organization she was looked upon as a splendid counselor and her advice was ever sought and valued highly in matters of import. Her death will occasion a loss to this club that will be as hard to fill as will be the void in the family.

The funeral took place Thursday at her late residence and a most beautiful tribute was paid to her memory by Rev. Milliken who came from Piedmont to officiate.

Friday morning the sad cortege bore the remains of the much respected lady to Mt. Olivet Cemetery, San Francisco where the cremation took place.

Deceased was 66 years of age and a native of Germany.

FUNERAL OF MRS. T. D. HALL

The funeral of Mrs. T. D. Hall was largely attended last Sunday and on Monday the remains were taken to San Francisco where the sorrowing cortage was met by Mrs. Carter, mother of deceased who arrived from Nebraska in time for the solemn rites. The services at the Crematory were conducted by Rev. Parker Boyd of the Episcopal Church.

PATHETIC CASE OF MOTHER'S DEATH

Mrs. Maria Mazzucca Leaves Motherless Children to Their Invalid Father.

One of the most pathetic cases of real bad luck recorded in a long time came to light here with the death of Maria Mazzucca and her infant who died at birth Sunday. The unfortunate woman left four little children to the father who has for a long time been a sufferer from tuberculosis and is an invalid. An older son by Mazzucca's first marriage had helped the family while working at the navy yard in Vallejo but recently he joined the aviation squad and went south for practice giving up his more remunerative job. While the mother lived she cared for the family with the help of brother Druids of her husband, but when she gave birth to the last child, Death's shadow hovered and took the self-sacrificing parent and little one over the Great Divide. A sorrowing brother came up from San Francisco to comfort the stricken family and many kind friends and neighbors aided the unfortunate father and his children. It was a most heart-rending scene, the little house wherein the body of the deceased lay with her infant clasped to her breast and the destitute surroundings where sickness and death added to the misery of a struggle with poverty. To a better, brighter Shore was the hope those who saw the silent form laid away in peaceful Mountain Cemetery and on Wednesday Mr. Plover who is Sonoma County's friend to the helpless and needy came down to see what could be done for the children who are all under 11 years of age and need care and attention.

G. BOCCA DROPS DEAD

Heart Failure Takes Well Known Resident of Glen Ellen.

Guiseppe Bocca of the well known resort near Glen Ellen dropped dead Tuesday while talking with his niece, Rose and admonishing her little one not to cry. The mother took the child into the house and had no sooner turned her back than she heard a thud and upon rushing out discovered that her uncle had fallen to the ground and was breathing his last. Death came instantly.

Mr. Bocca was 58 years of age and a batchelor.

His brother died some years ago and a nephew passed away last year.

Deceased was a kindly man and made many friends who will be grieved to hear of his untimely death.

Miss Henrietta Weber whose beautiful soprano voice will be heard during the celebration ran a nail in her foot and was treated by Dr. Hays this week on account of infection which set in. She is expected to be out again in a few days.

MORE PATRIOTS FROM SONOMA

Frederick DuhringJr. has enlisted in the Ambulance Corps. Young Duhring has held a splendid position with the Sperry Flour Company in the San Francisco office.

Leonard Thomas left for San Francisco on Thursday to enlist in the Engineering Corps. Leonard is a skilled mechanic and has been getting $4.50 a day at Santa Barbara.

Wm. Sherer, son of the former well known stone mason and of late employed in the railroad down south has enlisted and leaves very shortly for France.

Local Notes

Mrs. Marjorie Buchan Fisk and little one are here from Santa Barbara on a month's visit to Mrs. Buchan Mrs Fisk is a clever artist and illustrator and is doing some poster designing for the Woman's Relief Corps of her city during her stay here.

Mrs. Julius Poppe has returned home but her many friends will regret to hear that her knee is still causing her considerable trouble.

Stephen Duhring broke his arm Tuesday while cranking an automobile.

John Rosser, son of Mrs. Will Helberg had the misfortune this week to have his leg broken in a collision with an automobile.

The fine racing card and rodeo at Petaluma in which Joe Ryan and the Millerick brothers participated was marred by the sad injury to Al Dupon, the horseman, who was burned when the gasoline in his automobile exploded just before the races.

Mrs. Garside and her sister Miss Margaret Burke of the San Francico School Department were here Sunday from San Francisco.

Rev. Youtz will occupy the pulpit of the local congregational church pending his call to Honolulu where he will teach in a school founded there for the teaching of pupils having Hawaiian blood.

Dr. Herbert Shaw, U. S. A. is at San Antonio where he is examining 2500 reserves. He writes that he may later go to France.

Murray Foster writes that he has returned from a cruise to Panama and likes the navy immensely. He says "mother would not know me. I am as brown as a copper cent." He likes the healthy sea with its resultant coat of tan.

Harry Foster has apprenticed to the Union Iron Works and likes his job.

ESTATE MATTERS OF LOCAL IMPORTANCE

Miss Gertrude Calderwood has applied for letters of administration on the estate of her late mother, Mrs. Sophia Calderwood. The property is valued at about $7500.

Robert P. Hill applied for special letters on the estate of the late T. Denia Hall, widow of Robert Hall. Mr. Hill was named as executor of her will and under the special letters can take charge of the big fruit crop and other matters which require immediate attention. His practical experience as an orchardist will make him a valuable administrator.

HOG CHOLERA WARNING

As hog cholera has been reported in this community all ranchers owning hogs should take every precaution in preventing its spreading. A careful watch should be kept for any indication of the appearance of the disease and all suspicious cases should at once be reported to the veterinarian or the agricultural department of the high school will be glad to render its service in this matter.

For those unfamiliar with this disease a brief description of its characteristics, treatment and control is here given.

Hog cholera is a communicable and infectious disease of swine. It is the most dreaded and reaps the greatest toll of any disease affecting domestic animals in this country. The mortality in some herds is high as 100 per cent while the average is perhaps from 70 to 80 per cent.

In the former the disease is sudden and its onset rapid, animals attacked by this form live but a day or two after contracting the disease while the latter form known as the chronic type, the animal may linger for weeks or even months before death or recovery.

Symptoms of hog cholera: The symptoms of hog cholera are not particularly charecteristic and may vary in different cases, depending largely on the virulence of the disease producing germ and also resisting power of the individual animals of a herd. In cases of the acute cholera the first few hogs die very suddenly after having been sick but a short time. In the majority of cases, however, the following symptoms will be observed:
